

Viewing your Students' Username and Password Information

- 1. After logging into STEMscopes, select Students in the top navigation. Then, select one of your teacher sections (groups) by clicking Show to view your student details.

- 2. To the right of the student names you have added to your section, select View Username/Password to show the student's username and password information.

